PREFATORY NOTE.

ALL the volumes of TERRINGTON REGISTERS have been neatly rebound in half-leather and cloth, and in modern times have been well cared for, but the early ones have suffered much from damp at some period, and it has been difficult to decipher many of the entries.

Vol. I is 13 in. by 7 in. in size, and contains thirty-five parchment leaves. It is printed here as it stands, omitting only the constantly recurring "was baptised" in the Christenings, and the extraordinary arrangement of its contents will at once be noticed. Possibly the order of the pages was left to the binder when the volume was rebound, but that alone is hardly sufficient to account for the hopeless confusion. For convenience I have numbered the pages, and anyone desiring to follow the entries in chronological order will find they run as follows:—

CHRISTENINGS: Pages 5, 5a, 10, 10a, 12, 12a, 13, 13a, 14, 14a, 21, 21a, 1a, 2, 2a, 3, 3a, 6, 7, 7a, 8, 4, 4a, 22, 22a, 23, 23a, 24, 25a, 26a, 30a, 31a, 27, 27a, 28, 19, 1, 32, 34, 33a, 29, 29a, 35, 35a.

MARRIAGES: Pages 8a, 4, 19a, 12, 18, 18a, 2a, 6, 6a, 8, 22, 22a, 23, 25, 26, 30, 31, 31a, 27, 30a, 34, 34a, 33a.

BURIALS: Pages 16a, 15, 15a, 17, 17a, 20, 20a, 2a, 3, 7, 4a, 22a, 23, 23a, 25, 26, 30, 31, 28a, 27, 27a, 18, 24, 32a, 33, 34a, 29a, 29, 35a.

Marriages and Burials appear to be missing between the years 1618 and 1623.

Vol. II consists of thirty-five parchment leaves, and is 6½ in. by 10 in. in size. Bound in with the volume is a print, headed by the Arms of the Commonwealth, of the Act of Parliament touching marriages, of the 24th August, 1653.

Vol. III is 14 in. by 7 in. in size, and contains forty-five parchment leaves, numbered on each side pages 1—90. Owing to the use of poor ink, and probable exposure for a long period to damp, the writing is in many places almost illegible, and I have been compelled to indicate by dots many names and words which I have been unable to decipher. The arrangement of the entries in this volume is almost as curious as that of Vol. I. The first six leaves are filled with particulars of the Collections on Briefs made between 1697 and 1728, and many of these entries are illegible, and others partly so. In the latter case I have supplied several names from lists of Briefs in other parishes. The contents of the volume may be summarised as follows:—

Pages	1—12.	Briefs.
„	13—26.	Baptisms, 1681—1721.
„	28—36.	Baptisms, Weddings, and Burials, 1722—1731.
„	37—50.	Burials, 1681—1721.
„	50—55.	Burials, 1735—1754.
„	56.	Baptisms, 1752—1754.
„	57—59.	Marriages, 1735—1753.
„	60.	Baptisms at Castle Howard, 1741—1764.
„	61—65.	Marriages, 1682—1721.
„	65—69.	Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials, 1731—1734.
„	70—76.	Baptisms, 1735—1752.
„	77—90.	Baptisms and Burials, 1754—1768.

The volume is lettered on the cover as if all the Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials between 1681 and 1768 were included, but from the above Table of Contents it will be noticed that there are no Marriages later than 1753.

Vol. IV, 12½ in. by 8 in. in size, contains thirty-two parchment leaves, which I have paged from 1 to 64. Pages 39, 40, 63, and 64 are blank.

Vol. V contains a Terrier dated 1760 and the Marriages and Banns from 1754 to 1812.

The village of Terrington is eight miles west from Malton; the parish contains the townships of Terrington, Wigginthorpe and Ganthorpe.

The thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. SAMUEL WIMBUSH, M.A., the Rector of Terrington, for kind permission to transcribe these Registers.

VOLUME II.

AN ACT TOUCHING MARRIAGES AND THE REGISTRING THEREOF, AND ALSO TOUCHING BIRTHS AND BURIALS.

Be it Enacted by the Authoritie of this present Parliament, That whosoever shall agree to be Married within the Commonwealth of England, after the 29 day of September in the year 1653, shall (one and twentie dayes at least before such intended Marriage) deliver in writing, or cause to be so delivered unto the Register (hereafter appointed by this Act) for the respective Parish where each Partie to be married liveth, the Names, Surnames, Additions, and place of aboad of the Parties so to be married, and of their Parents, Guardians or Overseers; all which the said Register shall publish, or cause to be published three severall Lords dayes then next following, at the close of the Morning Exercise, in the publike meeting place, commonly called the Church or Chappell; or (if the Parties so to be married shall desire it) in the Market-place next to the said Church or Chappell, on three Market dayes in three severall weeks next following, between the hours of eleven and two, which being so performed, the Register shall (upon request of the Parties concerned) make a true Certificate of the due performance thereof, without which Certificate the Persons herein after Authorized shall not proceed in such Marriage: and if any Exception shall be made against the said intended Marriage, the Register shall also insert the same, with the name of the Person making such Exception, and their place of aboad, in the said Certificate of Publication.

“And it is further Enacted, That all such Persons so intending to be Married shall come before some Justice of Peace within and of the same Countie, Citie or Town-Corporate where Publication shall be made, as aforesaid; and shall bring a Certificate of the said Publication, and shall make sufficient proof of the consent of their Parents or Guardians, if either of the said Parties shall be under the Age of one and twentie years; and the said Justice shall examine by Witnesses upon Oath, or otherwayes (as he shall see cause) concerning the Truth of the Certificate, and due performance of all the premises; and also of any Exception made or arising: and (if there appear no reasonable cause to the contrary) the Marriage shall proceed in this manner:

“The Man to be married, taking the Woman to be married by the hand, shall plainly and distinctly pronounce these words:

“I A.B. do here in the presence of God, the Searcher of all hearts, take thee C.D. for my wedded Wife; and do also in the presence of God, and before these Witnesses, promise to be unto thee a loving and faithfull Husband.

“And then the Woman taking the Man by the hand, shall plainly and distinctly pronounce these words:

“I C.D. do here in the presence of God, the Searcher of all hearts, take thee A.B. for my wedded Husband; and do also in the presence of God, and before these Witnesses, promise to be unto thee a loving, faithfull and obedient Wife.

“And it is further Enacted, that the Man and Woman having made sufficient proof of the consent of their Parents or Guardians, as aforesaid, and expressed their consent unto Marriage, in the manner and by the words aforesaid, before such Justice of Peace, in the presence of two or more credible Witnesses; the said Justice of Peace may and shall declare the said Man and Woman to be from thenceforth Husband and Wife; and from and after such consent so expressed, and such Declaration made, the same (as to the form of Marriage) shall be good and effectuell in Law, and no other Marriage whatever within the Commonwealth of England, after the 29 of September, 1653 shall be held or accounted a Marriage according to the Laws of England: But the Justice of Peace (before whom the Marriage is solemnized) in case of dumb persons, may dispense with pronouncing the words aforesaid; and with joyning hands in case of Persons that have not hands.

“And that a true and just Account may be alwayes kept, as well of Publications, as of all such Marriages, and also of the Births of Children, and Deaths of all sorts persons within this Commonwealth; be it further Enacted, that a Book of good Vellum or Parchment shall be provided by every Parish for the Registering of all such Marriages, and of all Births of Children, and Burials of all sorts of people within every Parish; for the safe keeping of which Book, the Inhabitants and Housholders of every Parish chargeable to the relief of the Poor, or the greater part of them present, shall on or before the 22 day of September, 1653, make choice of some able and honest person (such as shall be sworn and approved by one Justice of Peace in that Parish, Devison or County, and so signified under his hand in the said Register-Book) to have the keeping of the said Book, who shall therein fairly enter in Writing all such Publications, Marriages, Births of Children, and Burialls of all sorts of persons, and the Names of every of them, and the dayes of the Moneth, and year of Publications, Marriages, Births and Burials, and the Parents, Guardians or Overseers names: And the Register in such Parish shall attend the said Justice of Peace to subscribe the Entry of every such Marriage; and the person so elected, approved and sworn, shall be called The Parish Register, and shall continue three years in the said place of Register and longer, untill some other be chosen, unlesse such Justice of the Peace, or the said Parish with consent of such Justice, shall think fit to remove him sooner: And for such Publications and Certificate thereof, twelve pence and no more may be taken; and for the Entry of Marriage, twelve pence and no more; and for every Birth of Child, four pence and no more; & for every Death, four pence and no more: and for Publications, Marriages, Births or Burials of poor people who live upon Alms, nothing shall be taken. And the said Justice of Peace (if it be desired) shall give unto the Parties so married a Certificate in Parchment under his Hand and Seal, of such Marriage, and of the day of the Solemnization thereof, and of two or more of the Witnesses then present; and the Justices Clerk for this Certificate may receive twelve pence, and no more; and if such Certificate shall be produced to the Clerk of the Peace for that County, and request made to him to make an Entry thereof, then the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to Enter the same in a Book of Parchment to be provided for that purpose, and kept amongst the Records of the said Sessions, and to restore the said Certificate; for which Entry the Clerk of the Peace may receive four pence and no more.

“And be it further Enacted, that if any person by violence or fraud shall steal and take away, or cause to be stolen or taken away, any person whatsoever, under the Age of one and twentie years, with intent to marry the said person in this Commonwealth, or in any other place, such person and persons so stealing and taking away, or causing to be stolen and taken away, shall forfeit his and their whole Estate reall and personall, one half thereof to the Commonwealth, and the other half to the use of the party so taken away, to be recovered by any Suit on behalf of the Commonwealth; or by any Action in a Court of Record, brought by their Parent, Guardian or Overseer, and shal farther suffer strict and close Imprisonment, or be kept to hard labour in some House of Correction, or other publike Working-house during life; and every person that shall be convicted upon Indictment, Presentment, or by any due course of Law, for aiding or abetting any such violence or fraud, shall be Imprisoned and kept at hard labour (as aforesaid) during the space of seven whole years next after such Conviction; and any pretended Marriage, that at any time hereafter shall be obtained by any such violence or fraud, is hereby declared null and void.

“And it is further Enacted, that where any Guardian or Overseer shall betray any Trust touching any Child, by seducing, selling, or otherwayes wilfully putting such Child into the hands or power of any person who shall marry such Child, without his or her free consent, such Guardian or Overseer shall forfeit double the Portion which of right did belong to such Child, one moiety thereof to go to the Commonwealth, & the other to the Child so married as aforesaid, to be recovered by any Action, Bill, Plaint or Suit, in any Court of Record, by the party wronged, or any other person on his or her behalf.

“And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, that from and after the 29 day of September 1653, the Age for a Man to consent unto Marriage shall be sixteen years, and the age of a Woman fourteen years, and not before; and any Contract or Marriage had or made before the respective Ages aforesaid, shall be void and of none effect.

“And it is further Enacted, that the hearing and determining of all Matters and Controversies touching Contracts and Marriages, and the lawfulness and unlawfulness thereof; and all Exceptions against Contracts and Marriages, and the distribution of Forfeitures within this Act, shall be in the power, and referred to the determination of the Justices of Peace in each County, Citie or Town Corporate, at the Generall Quarter Sessions; or of such other persons to hear and determine the same, as the Parliament shall hereafter appoint.

“And be it further Enacted, that all and every Offence and Offences at any time or times hereafter committed or done upon or beyond the Sea, contrary to the Tenour and true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall and may be tried in any City, Town-Corporate, or Countie where the person or persons so offending shall be apprehended or attached for the Offence or Offences aforesaid.

“And it is also Enacted, that where there are small parishes or places not within any parish, or no usuall Morning-Exercise on the Lords dayes in the aforesaid Meeting place, the Justices of Peace at their Generall Sessions, or any three or more of them, may unite two or more such Parishes, or such places to other Parishes (at their Discretions) which shall be accounted one Parish, as to the matters onely within this Act; and one Register to serve for such Parishes and places so united.

“And be it Enacted, that all and every the persons in this Act mentioned, may and shall, in their severall places by vertue hereof, put in execution all and every the Powers and Authorities respectively to them limited by this Act, any Law, Statute, Custome or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And all Register-Books for Marriages, Births and Burials already past, shall be delivered into the hands of the respective Registers appointed by this Act, to be kept as Records.

“And it is lastly Enacted by this present Parliament, and the Authority thereof, that this present Act shall be in force in Ireland from and after the first day of December, which shall be in the year of our Lord 1653.

“Wednesday, 24 August, 1653.”

“Ordered by the Parliament that this Act be forthwith Printed and published.”

“HEN. SCOBELL, Clerk.”

VOLUME V.

[On the fly-leaf at the beginning of the volume is written out the following Terrier.]

The Terrier: or an Account of the Parsonage House, Out Houses, Gardens, Orchards and Glebes belonging to the Parsonage of Terrington, deliver'd into Court at the primary Visitation of His Grace the Archbishop of York held at Malton in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & sixty.

One parsonage House, one Dove House, one Orchard, one Garden, one large Court before y^e House, one little Garden & a little house adjoining besides the Gate which goeth into the Town now repaired and converted to a School House.

One Barn beyond the Church Yard, two Stables, one Coach House, with other convenient out-Houses, one Croft adjoining thereto with a little orchard at the lower end of it.

Four Ofgang of Glebe containing sixty acres or thereabouts of arable & meadow, that is to say, In the Home field about fifteen Acres, two Lands called Bank Lands between Thornum Trod on the north & Lea Hedge on the South, two Lands called Bodee Hill Lands bounded on the Bank-Lands; two Lands called Wandills joining to a Bank belonging to the Glebe next Cliff-Hedge on the East; two Lands called tenter Lands having Cliff Hedge on the South, Broadway on the North; two Lands under lame-Hill a Baulk on the East, Thornum Trod on y^e South & Broad Way on the North.

Two Lands between Gates, bounded as those under Lame-Hill; two Lands called Flintows with Thornum Wall on the South, Broad Way on the North; two Lands called Trakills having West Ings on the north & broad Way on the South.

Two Lands called Cotills on the same side & two Lands called Cross-Beck Lands on the same Side of the Field. Two Lands answering to Cross-Beck Lands in y^e same field.

In the West Ings two Lands answering Thrakills in the How field; two other Lands answering Cotills in the same field; Two Lands answering to Coterdales in the Kirk Field in all eight Lands about four acres.

In the Kirk field about nine Acres, two lands called Cotterdales, having the Broad Way on the South, the Common Balk on the East; two Lands called Kirk Lands having North Carr on the North, otherwise bounded as Coterdales, two Lands called Crake Hills bounded as before, two Lands called Short Crake Hills bounded as before, only wants the Balk within two Lands of North Carrs Hedge on the East; one little Broad Land laying next Spittle Gate on the north, it is next Land to Toft Hedge, nine Acres in all.

In the Broats two Lands called Middle Broats having the Common on the North and Broats Land Hedge on the South and a Balk on the East ; two Lands next the East Hedge at the far end of y^e Broats in all four Lands about two Acres.

In the Mill-field about thirteen Acres ; two Lands at Garth Ends called town End Lands going to Culme-Hedge on the South, having the Town on the North & a Balk on the East. Two Lands called long-lands beginning at little Carr Hedge on the North & ending at Parsons Marr on the South ; two Lands called Butt End Lands having New Close on y^e East & Parsons Marr & broad head Land on the West & a Balk on the South ; two Lands called Wandills butted as the other having Parsons Marr on the West End ; two Lands called Cross Goles reaching from Surwood Close-Hedge on the West to Ganthorpe Closes on the other side of the field on the East, having a Balk on the South ; two lands called far-Cross lands near to Mouthorp Hedge on the South reaching from Surwood Hedge on the West to Mouthorp Low field on the East.

In the East low field under Surwood about four Acres, two lands under Surwood having Surwood Thorns on the North East & town Ings Beck on the South West, two Broad Lands called Short Dog thorns, having Ings Balk on the East, Langham head Land on the North East & Town Ings Hedge on the South ; Two Lands called Narrow Dog thorns having a Balk on the East, Langhams Head land on the North East & Town Ings-hedge on y^e South.

There are in the East town Ings answering the East low Field six lands about three Acres going to town Ings Beck on the South all answering the same Lands in the East Low field, those two lands in these Ings joining to the West low field Hedge, now known by the name of two penny piece belonged to the West Ings, on the other Side the Hedge answering to Ozman's Syke Lands.

In the west low field under Cliff besides that called Hold-Beck warp which is twenty eight Feet broad & hold-Beck piece about ten Acres ; two Lands having Ozmans Syke Balk on the East and the Dyke hedge on the North & Town Ings Hedge on the South ; one land called four oxgang Warp twenty eight feet broad going from Dyke Hedge to Town Ings Hedge butted as Ozmans Syke.

Two Lands called Mid Marsh Butted as the other having a Balk on the East ; two Lands called far Marsh butted as the other two Lands on the Top of Brahme having New Dyke hedge on the South & Koom on the East ; two Broad lands in the Leigh having Bank land Hedge on the North & new Dyke Hedge on the South answering to Mid Marsh Lands ; two other Lands in the far Leighs answering to far Marsh, butted as the other Leighs ; Hold Becks warp the same Breadth with four oxgang Warp having new Dyke Hedge on the South & Hold Beck piece on the North ; Hold Beck piece from Wandill Hedge in the How field on the West to the broad way on the East.

There are in the West Town Ings about three Acres, Two lands answering to Ozman Syke lands ; one piece on one side of Ozman Syke Hedge & another piece on the other side ; one warp twenty eight feet broad answering to the Warp in the West low field. Two lands answering to Mid-Marsh & two lands answering to far Marsh all having Town Ings Beck on the South & town Ings Hedge on the North in all seven Lands.

There are two common pastures, the one called Surwood & the other called North Carr.

There are ten Gates belonging to the Glebe in these common pastures: There belongs but eight Gates to four oxgang, but there are two Gates more belong to the Glebe in Lieu of two Lands wanting at the Top of Langham in the East low field under Surwood.

All manner of Tyths are paid in Kind except Calves. If a man have six Calves he pays instead of a Calf six shillings & eight pence, If five three shillings & four pence—No more paid under five than pence a piece for more than six shillings & eight pence if a Man have fourteen—Chickens & Eggs instead of which ev'ry Man at X^mmass pays a Hen & these are called Smoak Hens. Wigginthorp, Ganthorp & part of Mouthorpe pay two shillings in the pound at the present during pleasure, otherwise pay all in kind as Terrington doth except two shillings paid as a Modus for an Orchard & Place called Bowland Carr, but this enquired into seems only a Composition during M^r. Heynsters time formerly Parson of Terrington. Mortuaries are paid for ev'ry Householder y^t dies, according to law. Two pence at Easter for ev'ry one that is above sixteen Years of age, those that keep House pay it for their Tenants;—those that are married pay one shilling and sixpence if it be without Licence; those that are churched seven pence; Sevenpence is likewise paid for ev'ry one that is buried.

As for the tything of Hay when it is in cock & ready to lead, the owner before he leads it gives the Parson notice to send one to tyth it, who begins to tyth it where he pleases. The tything of Corn is after this manner—they do not set up their Corn in Stook, but the tything man when the Shearers are about the Lands End begins to tyth & throws out ev'ry tenth Sheaf; And if He be not there when they have cut the Land out, the owner sets one of his Shearers to throw out y^e tenth sheaf.

We the Churchwardens & Inhabitants do assent to the Contents of this Terrier in all things excepting only in the tything of Corn, for our Custom is, that one of the Labourers that reaps it is appointed to tyth for both Parties.
